

Role Profile: Counsel (Lawyer) for Three Crowns (US) LLP

Location: 3000 K Street, NW, Suite 101, Washington, DC 20007

Overview

Three Crowns was founded by specialist international arbitration advocates in the belief that international disputes call for focused advice and advocacy. The firm engages primarily in complex, high-value disputes, and counts among its clients many industry leaders and sovereign states. The firm has grown significantly across its four offices—London, Paris, Bahrain and Washington, DC—and now comprises 13 partners and approximately 90 employees.

The role

The Counsel (Lawyer) will represent clients on matters involving international law, including commercial, investment treaty, and state-state arbitration with a focus on Latin American disputes.

Required key skills and experience

- Requires JD or US LLM or foreign equivalent.
- Requires five (5) years of experience practicing international arbitration across industries, including construction, energy and telecom; practicing investment treaty arbitration for regulated industries, such as oil, gas, and mining; servings as lead counsel directing team members and managing client relationships in cases involving US and European companies operating in Latin America.
- Requires 40% national/international travel.
- Must be admitted to practice law in at least one (1) Latin American country.
- DC Bar Licensure required

To Apply

- Mail CV to Jacqueline Keener, Three Crowns LLP, ATTN: LAW, 3000 K Street, NW, # 101, Washington, DC 20007.