

THREE CROWNS LLP

ROLE PROFILE: ASSOCIATE (MID LEVEL)

LOCATION: LONDON

Three Crowns overview

Three Crowns is a law firm that was founded in 2014 by specialist international arbitration advocates in the belief that international disputes call for focused advice and advocacy. The firm engages primarily in complex, high-value disputes, and counts among its clients many industry leaders and sovereign states. The firm has grown significantly in each of its offices – London, Madrid, Paris, Singapore and, Washington DC – and now comprises over 140 people, including 18 partners. Across jurisdictions, it is regarded as a market leader.

Three Crowns offers a unique opportunity for lawyers who are committed to a career in international arbitration. Our lawyers service premium clients on ground-breaking international cases. More than possible at other practices, they collaborate closely with the firm's partners, and are given the opportunity - indeed, strong encouragement - to develop individual reputations in the field and their advocacy skills without the constraints of unnecessary hierarchy.

The role

The role will involve working closely with partners and other colleagues across the firm on high value, complex international arbitration cases and arbitration-related court litigations. Responsibilities will include:

- Advising on the procedural requirements under the CPR and practices.
- Working closely with team members to formulate case theory and strategy.
- Assuming a key role in drafting written submissions, including managing more junior members of the team in the process.
- Managing research and document review processes.
- Assisting in the preparation of witness and expert evidence.
- Liaising directly with clients, witnesses and experts, tribunals, courts, and opposing counsel.

Summary of candidate profile

Competitive candidates will possess:

- Qualification in England & Wales as a solicitor or a barrister.

- At least three years' professional experience representing clients in arbitrations and arbitration-related litigations.
- Experience representing clients in arbitration-related proceedings, including anti-suit injunctions, set-aside applications, and proceedings regarding enforcement of arbitral awards.
- Experience advising on the procedural requirements under the CPR and practices.
- An excellent academic background.

Skills and knowledge

Competitive candidates will possess:

- The ability to write clearly, economically, and persuasively in support of a client's case.
- The ability to identify relevant lines of research, and implementing rapidly with appropriate levels of depth, care, and creativity. Good grasp of appropriate sources and tools for research.
- The ability to analyse complex legal and factual problems, and to identify challenges and solutions to a client's case.
- A strong understanding of the substantive and procedural aspects of arbitrations and arbitration-related court litigation.
- Rigor, accuracy, and ability to structure written work product to suit demands of the case.
- The ability to orally present a client's case confidently, succinctly, and persuasively, while maintaining accuracy and credibility with a tribunal.
- The ability to manage own and others' work professionally and efficiently using commercially sound management practices that serve the best interests of the firm and its clients.
- The ability to communicate effectively with individuals, teams, and clients at all levels and present confidently and with authority.
